Dear Friend,

Tonight President Bush will deliver the State of the Union address to the nation. In his speech, President Bush will discuss his agenda for the coming year. The State of the Union is a chance to hear President Bush's ideas on health care, energy, and the war in Iraq and to discuss those ideas with family and friends.

Regardless of party or ideology, this is an important speech for all Americans to watch. If you are a parent, I especially encourage you to watch the speech with your children. This is a good opportunity to educate your children on our nation's democracy and to talk to them about major issues affecting our nation.

Live coverage of the speech will begin on both broadcast and cable channels at 9:00 P.M.
